THE DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

1-17-77

Dear Mr. Chairman:

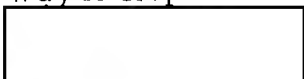

What a delight it was to see you and visit again during our travel to Colorado West last week. The opportunity to renew old acquaintances and make new ones while getting the chance to discuss the importance of intelligence activities was most appreciated. Thanks for taking the lead in arranging it.

Angie was as delighted as I in chatting with you in your lovely home. Hope we can do it again soon.

May 1977 be the happiest of years for you and your lady.
All the best.
